EL PASO IS GOING AFTER CATTLE RAISERS' ASSOCIATION

Fort Worth to Urge

El Paso's Claims.

For two will make a strong fight to secure the 1913 convention of the Texas Cattle Raisers' association, and a committee of citizens will be sent to the next convention of the association. At a meeting of several members of the committee at the chamber of commerce Monday night, plans were discussed which will be used to secure the convention for this city. W. W. Thrasey acted as chaltman of the meeting. He urged a large committee, say-

The convention for this city. W. W. Turney acted ag chairman of the meeting. He urged a large committee, anying the more that could be induced to become members of the committee and go to Fort Worth, the more likely it would be that He Paso could secure the convention. At least 30 members should make up the committee, as a small crowd cannot do anything in a convention like the Fort Worth one will be, as the cattlemen are always scattered, some in the hotels, oftiers at the convention hall, stock yards and the like. For this reason the He Paso committee will have many places to cover and a hig delegation of citizens is necessary, said the chairman.

Headquarters have already been arrenged for by scoretary Kinne, of the chamber of commerce. They will be on the second floor of the Westhrook hotel. Here the H Paso committees will have its meetings during the entire convention. The convention hats, which have been used by other HI Paso committees, will again be used and 2000 of these will be obtained to be distributed at the Fort Worth convention. Two Pullmans Used by the Band Destroyed by Fire at Station.

Deming N. M., March 12.—The two Pullman coaches used by Creatore's band were burned to the trucks Sunday night in Deming. The fire broke out about midnight. The cause is unknown. All the paraphernalis belonging to the band was saved. The fire delayed No. 7 an hour, as the flames were blowing across the main track. An engine was run down and coupled to a car of grain consigned to the Clark Grocery company, which was pulled away from danger of the burning cars.

The postmaster here has just received notification that Deming has been made a postal savings office, beginning with April 1.

How to be Certain of Curing Constipation

Prejudice is a hard thing to overcome, but where health is at stake and the opinion of thousands of reliable people differs from yours, prejudice then becomes your menage and you ought to lay it aside. This is said in the interest of people suffering from chronic constipation, and it is worthy of their attention.

In the opinion of legions of reliable American people the most stubborn constipation imaginable can be cured by a brief use of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. You may not have heard of it before, but do not doubt its merits on that account or because it has not been blatantly advertised. It has sold very successfully on word of mouth recommendation. Parents are giving it te
